MYSTERY FOLLOWS MYSTERY

"A Mystery Book" should be the title of any volume written around recent mysterious happenings in Paris. Especially would it apply to the recent craze manifested by some one for diamond rings belonging to Paris people. The ones engaged in it seem to find some pleasure and excitement, but no financial benefit.

Sometime ago valuable rings belonging to young women of this city, which had been stolen, purloined or surreptitiously or otherwise (legal persiflage) unlawfully removed from the premises or from the control of the lawful owners thereof, were equally as mysterious in the manner of their return. One of the victims found her ring hung on a front door knob. Another found her ring lying on the dresser from which it had been stolen, but another ring is still missing.

About a week ago a diamond ring valued at $700, mysteriously disappeared from the home of Mrs. Wm. Farris. The matter was reported to the police and a reward of $50 for the return of the ring, "and no questions asked" was offered. Time wore on, and nothing more was heard on a window shutter, also the sound of rapidly-retreating footsteps. A member of the Farris family investigated, and found the ring tied to a stout piece of cord, suspended from a window shutter.

Another mystery that is causing the gossips to wag their tongues is the appearance on the streets, during the past few nights of a woman masquerading in man's clothing, and sporting a painted false mustache. The shrew eyes of a small boy pierced through the woman's disguise Tuesday night, and he soon had a crowd of his associates following the masquerader. Seeing that she was discovered the woman took to flight and eluded her pursuers in the vicinity of the traction office.

FRENCH MEMORIAL DIPLOMAS FOR KENTUCKY SOLDIERS

French Memorial Diplomas, to be awarded to the nearest of kin of American soldiers who lost their lives in action overseas, will be received at the Lexington army recruiting station within the next few days for distribution on February 22, according to a communication received by Captain Fred Hershler, in charge of the station. About 200 diplomas will be awarded in Kentucky by the French government.

MISS BEVERAGE SOUNDS A CALL TO WOMEN.

Miss Edna Beverage, of Baltimore, a noted lecturer and worker in the interest of women, spoke to a large audience at the court house in this city yesterday afternoon on the many problems that will confront the women of to-day when they acquire their new boon of suffrage.

Miss Beverage, who is an interesting and brilliant talker, came to Paris at the personal solicitation of Mrs. Desha Breckinridge, of Lexington, the main object of her visit being to form a study class in citizenship. Such classes are being formed throughout the country and are of the greatest importance to the women. Miss Beverage's talk was an inspiration to these women who are interested in preparing themselves for future citizenship. She explained in a clear, comprehensive manner just what is to be expected of the women in this day of reconstruction, and just what they may expect to accomplish. As loyal American women they must be ready to assume the obligations about to come to them in being extended the right of suffrage. Whether they desire it or not the duty is here, and the obligation must be assumed. She explained to her audience that there are many problems in these days that can only be solved by an understanding of the functions of government and by legislative acts, and that women, therefore, should qualify themselves to be efficient and intelligent voters. Her address was well-received and the brilliant periods in it were liberally applauded.

TRUCK LOAD OF BOOZE HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

A big motor truck, in the back of which reposed six barrels of the famous old stuff that gave Kentucky a great name in the past, drew up in front of a local restaurant Sunday night. From the front seat two men and two young women alighted. The precious load of joy-dispenser was left to guard itself while the quartet went into the restaurant to refresh themselves. Some passer-by telephoned the police as to the presence and suspicious actions of the party, but before they arrived on the scene the outfit left, headed apparently for Lexington. It was said that the two men were former saloon-keepers of Lexington. Longing eyes were cast upon the truck load of whisky as it stood on the street, but no attempt was made to abstract any of the contents.

LEGISLATURE MEMORIAL FOR CAPT. REUBEN HUTCHCRAFT

Memorial services for Capt. Reuben Hutchcraft, who represented Bourbon county in the General Assembly for three sessions, and who was killed in action in France, were held in the House of Representatives at Frankfort, Wednesday, at noon. All three branches of the State Government were present to do honor to the memory of Captain Hutchcraft who was held in such high esteem by his associates. The executive branch was represented by Governor Morrow, the legislative by the members of both branches of the General Assembly and the judicial by Judges of the Court of Appeals.

The exercises were presided over by Representative H. C. Duffy, of Cynthiana, who served in the House with Capt. Hutchcraft and who, in the opening address, said he saw Reuben Hutchcraft grow from childhood to manhood, and his conduct as a child was exemplary and as a man above reproach.

The desk which Captain Hutchcraft occupied while a member of the House was draped with the American flag and flowers. During the course of his remarks, Representative Harry Meyers, of Covington, who served in the House with Capt. Hutchcraft, asked that the desk remain draped during the session out of respect of his memory.

The exercises were opened with the Star Spangled Banner played by the Reformatory Band which was stationed in the gallery. A quartet composed of Mrs. Edna Dryden, Mrs. Charles Irion, Prof. J. W. Ireland and Mr. Thomas O'Day sang, "Lest We Forget," the accompanying being played by Miss Harriet Meader.

Five minute talks were made by Representatives Cooper and Meyers, both of whom served in the House with Capt. Hutchcraft and Representative James H. Thompson, of Paris, who represents Bourbon county in the lower branch of the General Assembly. Prof. J. W. Ireland read "In Flanders' Field," and the answer thereto.

After these talks Lee S. Wainwright, of Winchester, who was appointed by Governor Black as a special representative from Kentucky to visit the graves of Kentucky's dead in France, told of his visit to the grave of Captain Hutchcraft which is in Letane Sedan Cemetery, Captain Hutchcraft having been killed on the Sedan front. Mr. Wainwright also had with him a picture of the grave of the former member of the House.

After the singing of My Old Kentucky Home, in which the audience joined, taps were sounded with Miss Emma Hunt, General DeWeese, Major Meriwether Smith, Major C. W. Longmire, Captain Luske, Major Ike Wilder and Sergeant Arthur Kernen, representatives of the American Legion, standing with bowed heads by the side of the desk which Capt. Hutchcraft had occupied as a member of the House.

The following letter from Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft, of Paris, sister of Capt. Hutchcraft, was read by Speaker Jos. Bosworth, expressing the sincere appreciation of the family for the beautiful evidence of loyalty to his memory:

"Even in childhood he (Capt. Hutchcraft) had just one earnest purpose for his life—one beautiful ideal—to serve his State unselfishly, without partisanship, and from his High School days through Harvard Law College it was his sacred duty to prepare himself not for a petty political career, but for real statesmanship. There have been many memorial services to do him honor, through last year, church, lodge, college, fraternity and professions, but more than any other mark of honor, I am sure that he would appreciate that expression of love and respect from his friends—the members of the General Assembly of the Kentucky Legislature, and I firmly believe that he will be with you in spirit."

The address of Representative James H. Thompson, of Bourbon, was a brilliant one, and was highly complimented by all who heard it. Mr. Thompson's address was printed in full in the Frankfort State Journal's account of the memorial exercises. The daily papers of Thursday also complimented the address in highest terms.

TO INSPECT COMMANDERY

Plans are under way for the annual inspection of Ryan Commandery, Knights Templar, of Danville, which will occur on Thursday evening, January 22. The inspection officer this year will be Eminent Sir Miles Hillary Harding Davis, of Paris, Grand Captain-General of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar, of Kentucky. Forty-four candidates have been knighted in Ryan Commandery since last March, a fine record.

MAYOR JANUARY ISSUES THRIFT PROCLAMATION

City of Paris, Office of Mayor. PROCLAMATION: Following the example of our Chief Executive, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, and Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, Governor of Kentucky, and being in hearty accord with the principles of the Thrift Week Program:

I, E. B. January, Mayor, hereby set apart the week of January 17-24 to be observed as Thrift Week, and earnestly urge our citizens to enter into such special observance of this Thrift Week Program as has been planned by the Bourbon County Thrift Week Committee. Let all our citizens show themselves 100% American in the promotion of this program at this time of need in our National life.

(Signed) E. B. JANUARY, Mayor.

TO MAKE IMPROVEMENTS AT GRAND.

Clarence Sprake, local manager of the Paris Grand, received instructions Wednesday from John B. Elliott, president of the Phoenix Amusement Company, lessee of the house, to make all necessary improvements in the matter of exits for the audiences.

This action was taken after Mayor January had, on behalf of patrons of the house, made representations showing the congestion obtained at places of exit at nearly every performance. The Grand will be placed on an equal footing with any other play house in the country in the matter of safeguarding the audience. There has never been a question of the ability to speedily empty the house in case of a fire or other disorder, but the complaint has been the narrow passage afforded for the crowds coming in and going out.

DOINGS OF LEGISLATURE AT FRANKFORT

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 14.—The large number of bills introduced in the House on the first bill day, Tuesday, is characteristic of all sessions of the Legislature. Each member has several bills which he or his constituents desire passed and he is always asked to put in measures for others who are interested in legislation of one kind or another.

Representative Murphy also sent to the clerk's desk his "hand book" bill, which is designed to prohibit betting or wagering on horse races, other than licensed race tracks. Any person making such a wager, either for himself or as agent or employee of another, shall upon conviction be confined in the county jail not less than one or more than 12 months.

An amendment to the Motor Vehicle law providing for the registration of automobiles with county clerks instead of with the Motor Vehicle Department is proposed in the bill of Representative Wheeler, of Bowling Green. The provisions of the bill give each county the use of its own license fees for the county road fund.

An amendment to the dog law was offered by Representative Wheeler, who proposes to allow one dog free from taxation to each family.

Relief of the blind was brought to the attention of the House in a petition from citizens of McLean county asking for a State home for the blind. A bill was also introduced at the request of the Kentucky Association of Blind providing for payment of sums not exceeding $200 a month to needy blind adults.

The motion picture censorship bill was one which was put in last session. It provides for a State Board of Censors and Examiners to whom all motion pictures must be submitted before they can be exhibited in this State.

An act to improve housing conditions in all parts of the State which has the backing of Louisville organizations was introduced by Representative Roth, of that city.

House Bill No. 1 was introduced by Representative Cox, of Lawrenceburg. It proves that school trustees shall purchase American flags and have them flown on school buildings during the school term.

A fool and his money are soon parted. Still, there are lots more.

People who live in glass houses shouldn't try to kill two birds with one stone.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

The Bishop & Flora Real Estate Co., of Paris, sold yesterday for C. L. Bell, two houses and lots located on Clifton avenue, to Jos. W. Flora, for $3,000.

Harris & Speakes, real estate dealers, sold at public sale Wednesday at Little Rock for Mrs. Gertrude Henry, of Wilmore, two cottages and a blacksmith shop to Wm. Wilson, colored, for $3,515.

Harris & Speakes sold to Jesse Scott, of near Newtown, ninety acres of land belonging to Stuart Urnstead, of Harrison county, located on the Newtown and Leestown pike, for $175 per acre. Possession will be given March 1.

Mr. H. C. Mann, of Paris, sold Wednesday through the Paris Realty Co., his residence on Walker avenue, to William Cooper, for a private price. The same company sold on the same day for Ed. Stump his two-story residence on Mt. Airy avenue, to Frank Redmon.

The real estate firm of Harris & Speakes sold yesterday to Frank P. Kiser 98½ acres of land belonging to Briney Bros. for a price aggregating about $300 per acre. This land is located on the Jacksonville pike about three miles from Centerville and is a part of the Buckner farm, recently sold.

Mrs. William Kenney sold to Ora Smith two acres of land located in the old Fair Grounds addition to Paris, on the Lexington pike, at a private price. John Duvall, conductor on the city car, purchased the Pfeffer tract of two acres, lying near the Kenney tract, at a private price. Both tracts will be cultivated in tobacco.

BIG SHIPMENT KENTUCKY WHISKY TO HOLLAND.

Fourteen million dollars worth of Kentucky whisky was shipped from Mobile, Ala., Tuesday, for Rotterdam, aboard the steamship Moshico. The steamship Lake Charles left Wednesday for Havana with two thousand barrels of liquor, which, it is said, will be the last "wet" cargo to leave Mobile before National prohibition amendment becomes effective.

LADIES' OUTFITTERS

—WE KNOW NOW—

Very few men appreciate the extreme care and attention to detail that is given nowadays to the making of clothes—particularly the making of our Smart Clothes. From the inspection of the woollens from the mill until the finished garments are hung in our cabinets ready for your try-on, there are hundreds of separate individual operations, each of which is performed only by skilled master craftsmen. And each operation must be perfect in itself to make a perfect fitting product.

It is the attention to detail—this care in making the unseen, hidden parts of each garment as fine as the high standard parts you can see that is what distinguishes our clothes from other clothes.

The fit, the style, the smartness may be seen in a try-on before our mirrors. The wearing quality is discovered only by months of service. Our wearers can tell you tales of unusual service—unusual as compared with other clothes, yet not unusual for ours.

THIS WOMAN IS NOW ENJOYING 3 MEALS A DAY

Lacked Appetite Before and Was Losing Strength All the Time.

Before Mrs. Andrew Luikart, of 1321 Vine street, Cincinnati, O., took Volatonic, "Builder of Strength," her appetite was so poor that she said she hardly ever ate more than one meal a day.

"I couldn't eat enough to nourish me properly and kept losing strength," Mrs. Luikart said. "But, what a difference since I've been taking Volatonic! I have an excellent appetite now and eat three meals a day regularly. As a result I'm getting stronger all the time."

"I have been in a weakened, run-down condition for a long time and got even worse about a year ago when I had influenza," Mrs. Luikart continued. "Sometimes I got so nervous and dizzy that I'd think I was going to fall and would have to catch hold of something to steady myself."

"I couldn't sleep at night, either, or get proper rest and I got up mornings feeling all tired out."

"I've been troubled with indigestion for a long time, too, and always had a bad taste in my mouth."

"Besides bringing me an excellent appetite, so that I eat three good meals every day, Volatonic also helped these other troubles. I sleep soundly every night now and get up feeling full of energy. The indigestion has left, also."

"In short, I am stronger and better all over since taking Volatonic, and I do not hesitate to recommend this medicine."

Volatonic, "Builder of Strength," brings the weakened, run-down man or woman a good appetite and good digestion. It helps the stomach take strengthening nutrition from food to nourish and build up the body. Volatonic also soothes the nerves and permits sound, energy-restoring sleep every night. As a result full normal strength and health soon return.

Volatonic, "Builder of Strength," is being specially introduced in Paris at Varden & Son's Drug Store. (adv)

Accidental Fortune.

Blotting paper was discovered by accident. Silver sand was originally used, but in a paper factory a woman once accidentally forgot to put on the sizing. The proprietor picked up a piece of the paper, but was annoyed to find that it was soaking up the ink. He at once entertained the idea that the paper would be useful for "drying."

LACK OF HORSES IS MOST SERIOUS

PRODUCTION OF THOROUGH-BREDS MUST BE EN-COURAGED.

PRESENT SUPPLY IS SHORT

Army Would Need One Animal for Every Two Men Should We Be Called Upon to Engage in Military Operation for Any Reason.

Some idea of the magnitude of the task of the Remount Board of the United States army in organizing and maintaining a horse breeding and supply scheme for the future forces of national defense may be had by a study of the reports of the remount officers of the A. E. F., for the period of 1917-1918. It was found in France that the old theory that the proposition of horse strength to man strength in armies should be two to five was erroneous. One horse for every two men was needed. To their astonishment the officers of the remount service, many of whom had never seen the inside of a military text book until a few weeks before they received their commissions, discovered that six hundred horses were required to equip a single infantry regiment of war strength, that is a regiment of 3600 to 3800 men.

It was next to impossible to obtain horses in sufficient numbers to properly equip even the artillery, transport and ambulance services of the A. E. F., because for a period of two years before the participation of the United States in the conflict the entente allies had been draining the country of horses of all sorts and kinds. The A. E. F. had no cavalry.

Modern Armies Are Large.

Nowadays armies are reckoned by hundreds of thousands, if not by millions. The strength of a single division of the A. E. F., was greater in men and horses than the biggest army commanded by Stonewall Jackson in his entire career. The combined armies of Lee and Meade that took part in the struggle of Gettysburg could have done no more in the titanic conflict that terminated last November than hold two-score of miles of the western front. If the United States were called to arms, whether to defend some interest peculiarly our own or to fulfill a League of Nations obligation, the mobilization of from 500,000 to 1,000,000 soldiers might be necessary. If the old theory that the correct proportion of horse strength to man strength in armies was still accepted by military opinion, 200,000 horses would be required for the outfitting of half a million soldiers, 400,000 for the outfitting of a force of 1,000,000 and, if an army of half a million or a million soldiers had to be kept in the field in a state of military efficiency a reserve of 400,000 to 800,000 would be necessary. If the future military forces of the United States are to be outfitted with horses on a one to two basis with adequate reserves, and such a scheme of outfitting would be necessary if the armies of the United States were to attempt intervention in Mexico to protect American or European interests in the maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine, it will be necessary to provide an immediate mobilization force of from 250,000 to 500,000 with reserves equally strong.

Today the United States could not properly outfit with horses an army of 100,000 soldiers. There are horses in the country, many of them. But they are mostly draught horses—Normans, Percherons, Clydesdales, Belgians, Shires, etc.—whose military usefulness is limited to the dragging of heavy artillery. Horses of these types are not in the least serviceable to a mobile army, or an army of maneuver, as the new phrase describes an army that must perform marches of fifteen to twenty miles a day or retreat quickly if strategy suggests retreat. They are too sluggish, too lacking in spirit. The horses that are wanted are the light types and of these there are so few the aggregate may properly be said to be a negligible quantity in any practical scheme of national defense. The gasoline motor long since made the production of this type of horse unprofitable. Farmers and stockmen have ceased to raise light horse in considerable numbers. The creation of a new supply must be stimulated by the United States government, but nothing the government could do would suffice if there was any interference with the production of thoroughbred stallions. Stallions of the thoroughbred type are indispensable because the offspring of such stallions, whether from mares of thoroughbred blood or from mares of no particular breeding, proved best in a half century of experimentation conducted in Europe by the great military powers before the outbreak of the war of nations and the half and three-quarter bred outstayed and outgamed the representatives of the colder breeds under the hard conditions of actual warfare between 1914 and 1918.

Light Horse Not Raised.

Since it is no longer profitable for farmers and stockmen to raise light harness horses for the market officers of the military service who have

Run-Down, Nervous Women

Louisville, Ky.—"Last year I became terribly run-down and nervous and had the symptoms peculiar to women of my age. Three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription so completely strengthened and built me up that I felt like a different woman; my nerves gave me no further trouble and I felt better in every way. 'Favorite Prescription' can be relied upon to relieve every symptom of feminine weakness and I take great pleasure in recommending it to all women who are ailing, weak or nervous."—MRS. OLIVER SHEARER, 247 N. Campbell.

IN MIDDLE-LIFE

St. Matthew, Ky.—"I suffered with such pain under my shoulder blades at night that I could hardly turn over from one side to the other—that was during the 'change'. I also had heat flashes and functional disturbance. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which gave good results. Have been a user of the same ever since. I can say that it is a splendid remedy for those who suffer with such troubles as women have to endure. I recommend it to all who suffer from such."—MISS MARY C. THOMAS, Route 20, Box 104.

"Weak, Run-Down and Nervous"

Frankfort, Ky.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women. Some time ago I was all run-down in health and became so weak it was an effort for me to get around. I was extremely nervous and was greatly in need of something to build me up. I took 'Favorite Prescription' and it was very beneficial in every way. I gained in strength and health and felt altogether like a different person."—MRS. L. E. TRUE, 144 E. Main St.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Cuburn, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known." (adv-jan) studied the problem of military horse supply most deeply have declared in recommendations to the general staff at Washington and to congress that the government must obtain and place at the disposal of farmers in sections of the country in which horses may be raised most economically between 4000 and 8000 thoroughbred stallions. A beginning has been made in this tremendous work, but no more than a beginning. The remount service has placed in Virginia, New York, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Texas and in the far west some seventy-five or eighty thoroughbred stallions, and these stallions have, almost without exception, been the cheerful gifts of thoroughbred producers and persons interested in racing.

It is because of the government's insurmountable need of thoroughbred blood that the most distinguished officers of the regular military service have been so outspoken in their opposition to half baked legislation that might interfere with thoroughbred production. Major-General Leonard Wood was the first officer of high rank to declare himself publicly on this subject. In 1911 when thoroughbred stallions and mares by the hundreds were being shipped out of the country because the shutting down of racing in New York state in consequences of the Hughes anti-racing legislation of 1908 and 1910 closed the metropolitan market to thoroughbred producers, General Wood announced in the daily press that the loss of thoroughbred blood had assumed the proportions of a national calamity, and that if something were not done by the government to check the exportation of such stock and to revive production it would be impossible to properly outfit with horses an army of the size the United States would have to put in the field if we came in conflict with a first-class power. The prophecy of General Wood was to be abundantly fulfilled in 1917 and 1918 as had already been pointed out.

Oppose Anti-Racing Laws.

When the hearings on the anti-racing bills in Maryland's legislature were held a year ago last winter were on General Andrew Hero, commander of the Artillery Brigade of the Division of draught troops that was training at Camp Meade, and Colonel Raymond Briggs, of the 31st field artillery, who afterwards became brigadier-general because of his distinguished service in the field, appeared before the judicial proceedings committee of the senate and protested against legislative interference with thoroughbred production. Major-General Kuhn and Brigadier-General Nicholson, respectively, commander and second in command of the Camp Meade Division, were unable on account of business to appear before the house judiciary committee at the last hearing, but they authorized representative speakers against the pending legislation in their names.—Advt.

PARIS TURF MEN FIGURE IN RACE NEWS.

Mr. J. Hal Woodford, of Paris, recently purchased of Clyde Vandusen, of Lexington, a two-year-old by Colinet, out of Tokalon.

John T. Ireland, of Paris and Lexington, uncovered a shifty racer at the Oriental Park, in Havana, Wednesday in his filly, Cleaning Up.

Cleaning Up, a first-time starter, made her opposition look cheap. She made her own pace and won in a gallop by eight lengths. On the strength of having out run Colonel Taylor in a trial a few days ago Cleaning Up was made the odds-on favorite. The easy manner in which the filly won justified the odds. Cleaning Up is a Rochester-Sea Mist colt.

NO GREAT ACT OF HEROISM REQUIRED.

If some great act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there the many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual. (adv-jan)

It is expected that a large number of the business men who cannot attend the classes meeting before supper will be able to attend this class. Mr. Harrison has received a challenge from the Lexington Y. M. C. A. Business Men's Volley Ball team and will begin training a team of Bourbon county volleyball ball "tigers" at once for the contest.

L. & N. AND W. U. IN WIRE TANGLE.

The L. & N. Railroad Company, according to information received here last week, is endeavoring to force the Western Union Telegraph Company to move its telegraph poles from the railroad company's right-of-way along the Cincinnati-Knoxville division from Cincinnati and also on the Kentucky Central division from Cincinnati and also on the Kentucky Central division between Lexington and Paris. A suit with this end in view is now pending in the Federal Court at Louisville, it is stated. A Lexington photographer was employed the past week to make a series of photographs of the offending poles to be used as exhibits in the case. It is understood that the railroad company needs the space now occupied by the Western Union telegraph poles for further improvements along its lines, and for this reason desires to oust the poles.

BURGULARS AGAIN.

Frank Duke and Washington Cage, both residents of Clayville, were arrested and jailed at a late hour Wednesday night by Chief of Police Link, on a charge of stealing lumber. The negroes had shown a very discriminating taste when they visited the Mansfield-Jefferson lumber-yard, near Clayville, and helped themselves to a choice lot of building material. Both negroes have served terms in the Frankfort Reformatory.

On the same night, George McCandless, residing on Second street, was awakened at a late hour by a noise in the yard at his home. Upon investigating he found an unsuccessful attempt had been made to force the locks on his chicken house. Tracks in the light snow that had fallen during the night enabled Mr. McCandless to track the visitors some distance, and into a vacant lot near Ruckerville, where they became confused in a maze of others. Nothing was disturbed about the place and nothing missing. A big iron chisel with which the prowler had endeavored to force the locks was found lying close to one of the houses.

BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS SHOULD HAVE MEMORIAL

Again an anxious public wants to know what is to be done with the proposed project for erecting a lasting and suitable memorial to the memory of the Bourbon county soldiers and sailors in the great world war.

In every hamlet of this great country, in every city and in every town, citizens are raising a permanent memorial to boys who went to the war, and to those whose lives paid the forfeit for their patriotism. It is not enough that their names be recorded in a temporary way. They must find some lasting expression where for all time to come this scroll of fame may stand and serve as an example to those who follow after.

We in Bourbon county must see to it that a lasting monument to the fame of our gallant boys finds some exemplification. Now is the time to do it. We have had a half-hearted movement to that effect, but like so many other movements here it has fallen behind because of the ever-present disposition to "let the others do it."

Wood perishes in the course of time. The monument Bourbon county must erect to these boys' memory must be an imperishable one. In the olden countries these memorials take the form of stone crosses or monuments in the village church yard. No matter where it may be eventually placed this memorial should be erected. If it is not done it will be to the everlasting shame of Bourbon county, where before the county has led in all patriotic movements.

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

To-night at the "Y" Gym will be a big night in Paris.

Lexington and Paris clash in the State championship basketball race. Both Lexington and Paris have defeated Georgetown Hi this season. Lexington is reported to have a great team, and we feel Paris is ready and will go on the floor to-night expecting a hard game, but with plenty of determination to play a good, clean, hard game.

Friends of the Paris team are asked to come early before the best seats in the Gym are taken by people from other places. We want you "close in" Friday night and we want you to root hard.

Miss Sarah Blanding, athletic instructor at State University, Lexington will referee the girls' game, and "Andy" Gill, State University, will referee the boys' game.

The Paris team has scheduled a return game with the Lexington High School teams, to be played on the Lexington floor, on February 26. It's a long way off, and much can happen between now and then, but Paris feels confident that the bacon is coming home to them.

The Paris team will line up as follows: Boys—Denton, center; Burnett and Roberts, forwards; Rice and Tucker, guards; Dundon, McClintock and O'Neal, substitutes. Girls—Baldwin, center; Wallingford and McClintock, guards; Collier and Arnold, forwards.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS

A contract has been awarded by the Presbyterian Church to the firm of Nevin & Henry, architects and contractors, of Louisville, for improvements in contemplation for the interior of the new church here. Three large art glass windows, with four carved pieces, and with twelve-foot paneled wainscoting, will be built in the wall immediately in the rear of the pulpit. The new improvements will tend to greatly beautify the auditorium, and will also admit more light. The work will cost $1,500, and will be under way in a short time.

Lemon Tree Produces Oranges.
According to the "Journal of Heredity," a lemon tree, supposedly of the ordinary Italian lemon variety, was transplanted in Egypt. When it bore fruit it was noticed that the lemons were more spherical than lemons usually are and bore an orange-colored stripe. One branch bore a large fruit which was unmistakably an orange.

SWIFT & CO.'S WEEKLY REVIEW OF MARKETS.

Egg production showed an increase of 23 per cent. and poultry 19 per cent. in the past ten years according to the Department of Agriculture's forecast of its figures for 1919. Early figures issued place the total 1919 egg production at 1,957,- 000,000 dozen and poultry at 6,000,- 000 head.

This represents an increase in production over 1909 as follows:
Eggs, 366,000,000 dozen.
Poultry, 112,000,000 head.

Receipts of poultry are lighter and higher prices are being paid for live poultry, both in the country and in the consuming centers. It is expected, however, that reserve stocks will be drawn upon if there should appear to be any deficiency in the current marketing.

Fresh eggs are beginning to move in small quantities, more particularly in the South. The market is very sensitive to increased receipts.
The changes in the weather have considerable bearing on the market price.

The Associated Warehouse Report, covering 53 warehouses, shows
the following stocks as of January 1st:

Eggs, 1920, 1,010,000 cases, 1919,
492,000 cases; increase, 518,000.
Butter, 1920, 37,712,000 pounds,
1919, 27,022,000 pounds; increase,
10,690,000 pounds.

It will be noted that there is a large reserve stock of both eggs and butter. The Government report, covering the entire country, will probably show larger surplus.

A smaller amount of cream has been delivered to the creameries
this week, but with the reserve stocks there is ample supply, and any immediate increase in production, without a corresponding increase in the demand from the consumer, will probably have the effect of causing lower prices.

The hornbook, invented in 1450 and

Unusual Value—In Tires for Small Cars

Not only is characteristic Goodyear merit conspicuous in Goodyear Tires for small cars but ordinarily the first cost is found to be not greater than that of other tires; often it is actually less.

The combination of unusual value in first cost and very low final cost, of course, is a result of Goodyear experience, expertness and care employed as insistently in the making of 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch tires as it is in the construction of the famous Goodyear Cord Tires used on the highest-priced automobiles.

For this reason more cars using these small sizes were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

The Successful Farmer Raises Bigger Crops

and cuts down costs by investment in labor-saving machinery.

Good prices for the farmers' crops encourage new investment, more production and greater prosperity.

But the success of agriculture depends on the growth of railroads—the modern beasts of burden that haul the crops to the world's markets.

The railroads—like the farms—increase their output and cut down unit costs by the constant investment of new capital.

With fair prices for the work they do, the railroads are able to attract new capital for expanding their facilities.

Rates high enough to yield a fair return will insure railroad growth, and prevent costly traffic congestion, which invariably results in poorer service at higher cost.

National wealth can increase only as our railroads grow.

Poor railroad service is dear at any price. No growing country can long pay the price of inadequate transportation facilities.

MRS. CHAS. PEDEN GAINS 27 POUNDS

Was Twice Examined And Each Time Told Operation Would Be Her Only Hope

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Chas. Peden, residing at 550 Mill Street, Huntsville, Alabama. Mrs. Peden is one of the best-known and most highly respected women of that city, where she has made her home for a number of years.

"When I commenced taking the medicine," she continued, "I only weighed ninety-eight (98) pounds; now I weigh one hundred and twenty-five pounds and never felt better in my life. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pains took the form of torture and I was twice examined and each time told an operation would be my only hope. I had fallen off until I only weighed ninety pounds and was so weak I could hardly get around.

"I had no appetite scarcely at all, and what little I did eat would cause gas to form in my stomach which gave me palpitation of the heart, sick headaches and a dizzy feeling about the head. When those spells came on me, I would get awfully nervous. I worried about myself until I could rest and sleep but little.

"I had fallen off until I was almost 'skin and bones' and my strength and energy were slowly leaving me. I had a dread of the future and could see nothing but the operating table and the knife. I had a perfect horror of an operation, but made up my mind that it was either life or death and prepared to submit to it. I had made all preparations for the operation and called on my sister to tell her goodbye, as I did not know whether I would live to see her again or not. My sister begged and pleaded with me not to allow them to cut on me and told me to wait and try a good tonic for a while. The next day as I returned from the consultation room I thought of what she said, and as I had heard so much about Tanlac, I decided to try it as a last resort, and stopped at the drug store and got a bottle. Of course, I had lost heart and had no faith in medicine, but to please my sister, I made up my mind to take it, and oh, what a happy day that was for me!

"I never returned for the operation, but just kept taking Tanlac and my improvement has been so rapid that none of my clothes fit me. Right from the start I began to improve. The medicine seemed to take hold right at once. It had a soothing effect, and in a few days I felt no pain at all. I was so happy over my wonderful improvement that I sent for my neighbors to tell them how much better I felt. I sent and got another bottle of Tanlac and have just finished my third and feel like I have been made over again into a new woman.

"As I have said before, I now weigh one hundred and twenty-five pounds and none of my clothes are big enough for me, and I will have to make them over again. I now have a ravenous appetite and my husband says I am simply eating him out of house and home. I have even gone back to my coffee, which I was told not to touch. Those horrible pains in my back and head all disappeared and I sleep like a child. I am no longer nervous, and when I get up in the mornings I feel refreshed, cheerful and bright. I am now able to attend to my housework again and I feel as if I had started life all over. My husband is highly delighted and my recovery is the talk of the neighborhood. I do nothing but rejoice all day, long over the recovery of my health and praise Tanlac to everybody.

"I feel so grateful for my escape from the operating table and the knife that you may publish what I have said; you may if you wish, tell other women suffering as I was to come and see me and I will be glad to tell them about my case."

Tanlac is sold in Paris by the Peoples' Pharmacy. (adv)

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than
"Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock-absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without gripping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little, too.

JAPS SAID SHIPPING ARMS TO MEXICO.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., Jan. 15.—The Senate Sub-Committee investigating the Mexico situation had a report that a large shipment of ammunition for the Carranza government arrived at Manzanillo, Mex., Dec. 24, simultaneously with the Japanese cruiser Yakuma.

The report was known at army headquarters here and was forwarded to the War Department at Washington.

The Yakuma apparently was escorting the ship bearing arms and ammunition, which had been purchased in Japan through Colonel Emilio Ciercos, of the Mexican army, and Manuel Perez Romero, the Mexican Minister at Tokio.

The Yakuma, the report adds, was met at Manzanillo by a committee representing the Mexican department of war and marine and its commanding officer and subordinates were invited to visit Mexico City. Part of the personnel of the Yakuma, it is stated, consisted of students from the Japanese military academy.

Recent report from Mexico indicate Federal troops in the State of Chihuahua are better equipped than they have been for a long time. Considerable numbers of machine guns recently have been received, it is said.

Marriage is apt to be a failure to those who lose sight of the fact that its outcome depends upon the income.
